CHRISTMAS SERVICES AT CHRIST CHURCH.

Reverend Monroe Royce will conduct services at Christ church on Christmas at 7:45 and 11 a. m. At the eleven o'clock service, many beautiful old Christmas hymns are to be sung. The choir will be augmented by several of Pensacola's talented musicians.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES AT THE MISSION.

This afternoon commencing at 5 o'clock, doors being opened at 4:30, the Mission will enter upon its first Christmas festivities and distribution by Santa Claus.

The children have ready a program of songs and recitations, and the celebrated Mission chorus will render several selections.

At 7:30 another musical treat is in store for those that remain. Norris Lewis, grandson of Mrs. T. V. Kessler, will sing "The Stars in the East." Mrs. Clark will sing "In Old India," song and mandolin accompaniment by Miss Crawford; quartette by Mrs. Lounsbury, Mrs. Clark and T. V. Reynolds and R. W. Simpson, and other numbers.

The Mission desires to tender its heartfelt thanks to those people who have helped to make the little ones happy in their donations of toys, candies, fruit, etc., amongst them being Mrs. W. S. Keyser, Mrs. T. V. Kessler, Mrs. J. E. White, Mrs. Lewis, of the Lewis House, Hoyt Grocery Co., Klein Grocery Co., J. S. Williams & Co., Gerelids Grocery Co., Stratton Ice Co., Moore Ice Co., Pensacola Fruit and Produce Co., Class II First Presbyterian Sunday school, Grade 7, Section A, School No. 1, and many others.

The auditorium is beautifully decorated, and the Mission extends an invitation to all to participate. All is free—no collections—everyone welcome.

SERVICES AT FORT BARRANCAS TOMORROW.

After Christmas day, it will be nice to take a trip to the fort Sunday morning by the 9:30 car, and attend the service at the gymnasium. The Misses Wolf will give a violin selection, with piano accompaniment, and solos. Mr. Simpson, of the Mission, will preach. It is hoped that many of the people will turn out, and that the boys at the fort will be on hand to listen to the program offered them.

WE SOLD MORE

Lester and Kranich & Bach PIANOS

this month than ever before in the history of The Clutter Music House, and we have been selling these pianos for over TWENTY YEARS.

We wish to thank our patrons for this testimonial of our fair dealing and of the undoubted quality of our Pianos.

"May you live long and prosper." We expected a big sale of pianos and ordered accordingly, but—

A large number of Lester and Kranich & Bach Pianos did not arrive until the last minute, and we have a line of new, up-to-date pianos at reduced prices and terms for next week. Remember, $10.00 sends a piano to your home. We can make deliveries this Christmas morning. Just telephone us.
